City of Denison Recognized for Hiring Veterans

Denison, Texas – Friday, July 15th, the City of Denison is being recognized by the Texas Workforce Commission as an official “We Hire Vets” employer.

“We Hire Vets” employers hire and employ at least ten percent veteran staff. In Denison, 10.45% of the staff are veterans, which is close to 40 employees.

“We are proud to be recognized for this wonderful achievement, but we are more proud of the veterans we have working for our city. Their unique set of skills helps build Team Denison to be the best it can be. We have many wonderful men and women who have served our country, now serving the citizens of this city, and we are honored to have them be a part of the Denison family,” said Denison’s Director of Employee Services Amy Lay.

Employee Services staff were proud to accept recognition of this designation on Friday, July 15th at the TWC Conference held at Denison’s Hilton Garden Inn/Texoma Events Center. The City of Denison is proud to partner with TWC in support of our Nation’s Heroes.
