Denison Police Locate Suspect in Arson Investigation

Denison, TX (August 3, 2022) – On June 28th, the Denison Police Department was called to assist the Denison Fire Department for an investigation into a structure fire located in the 500 block of W. Day Street.

Investigators determined the fire to be non-accidental, and an arson investigation began.

After confessing to the crime, 31-year-old David William Darling was issued an arrest warrant for Arson Intend Damage Habitat.

Darling is currently in the Grayson County Jail for unrelated warrants including Assault Family Violence, Possession CS PG 1<1g, and Evading Arrest.

His total bond is now $69,500.
